

CALIFORNIA FISH PASSAGE FORUM

RESTORATION RESOURCES

BARRIER INVENTORY & BARRIER ASSESSMENT

Use the PAD and Barrier Prioritization Tool, and Assessment Methods to identify project sites.

PRE-PROJECT MONITORING

Apply for funding for pre-project monitoring and use our Monitoring worksheet to standardize data collected before implementation.

PERMITTING

Get a free consultation with permitting experts to learn about streamlined permitting options for your project.

DESIGN & CONSTRUCTION

Apply for funding for cost-share for implementation and access project design and management experts.

POST-PROJECT MONITORING

Apply for funding for post-implementation monitoring for your project and access data to compare the effectiveness of your project with fish passage projects across the state.

WWW.CAFISHPASSAGEFORUM.ORG

CALIFORNIA FISH PASSAGE FORUM

ABOUT

The California Fish Passage Forum is a collaborative entity formed among state, local, and federal agencies, fisheries conservation groups, researchers, restoration contractors, and other interested parties to explore and develop an effective methodology and plan to restore and recover anadromous fish populations by improving fish passage at man-made barriers. We are a nationally recognized fish habitat partnership under the National Fish Habitat Partnership.

WWW.CAFISHPASSAGEFORUM.ORG